Registration Policies

How can I register for PD seminars?
Registrations can only be made online. Payment can be made by using VISA, MasterCard or INTERAC Online Service Banking.

Who can register for PD seminars?
Both members and non-members may register themselves or others into our PD seminars. Members receive preferred rates on PD programs including access to the PD Passport program.

When is the deadline to register for a PD seminar?
Registration deadline is 9:00am, two business days prior to the seminar date.

Can I pay via cheque?
If paying by cheque, please include a list of all registrations, including seminar date and location, as well as attendee name and email address.

Please note that spots cannot be held prior to the cheque being received, registrations will be made in the order that payment is received.

How will I know if my registration has been processed?
Confirmations will be emailed to all registrants. A valid email address will be required for each registrant. Please ensure that your email address is up to date.
Is there a waitlist for PD seminars?
We do not keep wait-lists for seminars that have sold out. A new session may be added to the schedule if the interest level warrants it.

How will I receive the program materials?
Materials for PD seminars and conferences will be distributed electronically to attendees unless otherwise noted. Please ensure your email address on file with CPA Ontario is accurate prior to the event to ensure you receive the program materials.

Course materials for Certificate and Executive programs will be provided on site or via email for any pre-course work.

Are meals included with the PD seminar?
- Full-day seminars include: Continental breakfast with fruit and yogurt, lunches with entrée, sides, and dessert, coffee, tea, soft drinks, juice, and water.
- Half-day seminars include: Coffee, tea, soft drinks, juice, and water.
- No snacks are served in either full-day or half-day seminars.
- Certificate and Executive programs include: hot breakfast, lunches with entrée, sides, and dessert, coffee, tea, soft drinks, juice, and water and may include dinner or networking events dependent on the program (please see program details for information).
- Please note that while we attempt to be consistent across all facilities used for PD events, the food policy for programs held at offsite locations may vary, depending on the options available at the facility.

How can I request a vegetarian meal or notify you of a specific food allergy?
Requests for vegetarian meals and information concerning specific food allergies should be communicated during the online registration process in the “special instructions” section.

Why have the meals changed at my location?
In order to maintain 2016 Professional Development seminar prices in 2017 without impacting course content and in consultation with participant feedback, we have changed our food policies to include:

- Continental breakfasts with fruit and yogurt (except for Executive and Certificate Programs which will include a hot breakfast)
- Lunches with entrée, sides, and dessert
- Coffee, tea, soft drinks, juice, and water

Please note that the facilitators of our programs do not make the food policies or choices. Please note that while we attempt to be consistent across all facilities used for PD events, the food policy for programs held at offsite locations may vary, depending on the options available at the facility.
PD Passports

What is the Personal Passport and how much does it cost?

Personal PD Passports for individual CPAs are $840 + HST and are not transferrable. Once a CPA purchases a passport, it is captured as credit on their account in the Registration Portal. With the credit, a CPA can register for half, full and two-day seminars at the reduced pricing listed below. One Personal PD Passport is the equivalent of three full day seminars (in person). Once the credit on the Personal PD Passport has been used, additional seminars can be registered at a discounted rate of $280 (plus HST) per day.

Can I transfer my seminar registration to a different event of the same value without paying the withdrawal fee?
Yes, transfers between seminars are accepted up to 14 days prior to the seminar without a withdrawal fee.
The transfer request must be made in writing to pd@cpaontario.ca.
There are no transfers or cancellations less than 14 days prior to the seminar date.
After I withdraw from a seminar, do I get a refund?
No, you will receive a credit memo onto your account.

For withdrawals from registrations made on a passport, a credit will go directly back on the passport, even if extra days were registered on the passport.

How can I make a substitution on an Organization Passport?
Organization Passport registrations can be substituted for another member of the organization.
Advance notice is appreciated.
Please email pd@cpaontario.ca with the substitution.

Can the PD Passport be refunded?
Under no circumstance can a PD Passport be refunded.
Under no circumstance can unused and expired PD Passport days be refunded. Any remaining balances after the expiry date will be forfeited to CPA Ontario.

What happens if CPA Ontario cancels a seminar?
CPA Ontario reserves the right to cancel events. Registrants will be notified and a full credit will be issued and appear on your account if an event you are registered to attend is cancelled.
