5.2 General Meeting

The Council may at any time call a general meeting of Members (a “General Meeting”) for the transaction of any business, the general nature of which is specified in the notice calling the meeting. The Council shall call a General Meeting upon receipt of a requisition specifying the purpose or business to be transacted at the meeting, signed by no less than one tenth of the Members entitled to vote at the meeting proposed, delivered to the Registrar.

Amended September 28, 2017

5.3 Notice of Meetings

Notice of the time, place and date of meetings of Members and the general nature of the business to be transacted shall be given at least ten (10) days before the date of the meeting to each Member (and in the case of an Annual Meeting to the auditor of CPA Ontario) by sending notice by any one of the methods set out in Section 14 that provides for individual notice.

5.4 Council Members

All Council Members are entitled to be given notice of any meeting of the Members, and to attend and speak at any such meeting.

5.5 Quorum

A quorum for the transaction of business at meetings of the Members shall be twenty-five (25) of the Members of CPA Ontario present in person or represented by proxy (with at least two persons present in person), and no business shall be transacted at any meeting unless the requisite quorum is present at the commencement of such business;

5.5.1 Provided however that where:

5.5.1.1 less than twenty-five (25), but two (2) or more, persons are present in person after one-half hour after the commencement time specified in the notice calling the meeting of Members; and

5.5.1.2 the business transacted is limited to the selection of a chair and a secretary for the meeting, the recording of the names of those present, and the passing of a motion to adjourn the meeting with or without specifying a date, time and place for the resumption of the meeting, then two (2) persons present in person constitute a quorum.

Amended October 19, 2012 and June 18, 2014

5.6.2 Unless otherwise required by the provisions of law or the bylaws, all questions proposed for consideration at a meeting of Members shall be determined by a majority of the votes cast. In the case of an equality of votes, the question shall be deemed to have been lost.

Subject to the requirements of law, a proxy may be in such form as the Council from time to time prescribes or in such other form as the chair of the meeting may accept as sufficient. Upon a show of hands, every Member entitled to vote, or proxyholder for a Member entitled to vote, present in person shall have one (1) vote. Whenever a vote by show of hands has been taken upon a question, unless a poll is requested, a declaration by the chair that a resolution has been carried or lost by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of CPA Ontario is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against the motion.

5.9 Chair

In the absence of the Chair or Vice-Chair, the Members entitled to vote present at any meeting of Members shall choose another Council Member as chair and if no Council Member is present or if all the Council Members present decline to act as chair, the Members present shall choose one of their number to be chair.

The result of a poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was requested. A request for a poll may be withdrawn at any time prior to the taking of the poll.

5.11 Adjournments

Any meeting of Members may be adjourned to any time and from time to time, and any business may be transacted at any adjourned meeting that might have been transacted at the original meeting from which the adjournment took place. No notice is required of any adjourned meeting.

In all cases for which no specific provision is prescribed by law or made in the bylaws, the Rules and practice of the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall govern as far as applicable, provided that no action of CPA Ontario or of the Council shall be invalid by reason only of a failure to adhere to such Rules.
